ROSE MULLIGAN

This community was greatly shocked to hear of the death of Rose Mulligan, who passed away Saturday, Jan. 6, after fracturing her hip three weeks ago.

Her familiar figure will be missed in church and in social affairs, which she greatly enjoyed. She was born in Wilton, Wis., in 1877, later moving to Iowa, then to Aurora, S. D., and in 1898 moved to Ferney, S. D., where she made her home. After the death of her mother she made her home with her brothers and sisters.

Those surviving are two brothers, Jack of Rockham and Jim of Conde; four sisters, Mrs. Herman Eulberg, Mrs. Mayme Warner of Rapid City, Mrs. W. J. Perrin of Conde, and Mrs. Sadie Smith of Brookings. One sister preceded her in death.

Services were held in the Conde Catholic church on Tuesday morning at ten o'clock, with Father Kettler officiating.

Pallbearers were Herman Grandpre, John Bertsch, Paul Brown, Everett Hildebrant, Jasper Klapperich and Marion Conley.
